CLASSICAL DANCE: Classical dance forms use basically the 'mudras' or signs of hand as a common language of expression and were originally performed in the temples to entertain various Gods and Goddesses. They were also effective in carrying forward the various mythological stories from generation to generation while entertaining the audiences. It eventually became a part of 'NatyaShashtra', with time, the classical dances evolved to include the expressions and themes from social life and experience.

FOLK DANCE Folk dances are dances developed by groups of people that reflect the traditional life of the people of a certain country or region. Folk dance forms are practiced in groups in rural areas as an expression of their daily work and rituals. They are performed on religious, seasonal festivals or entertainment.

Campus Radio Club

The club taps into the pulse of the campus by creating and curating content and playlists that is relevant to students and families across campuses, be it interviews, campus updates, quizzes, life or culture.

We are in process of making the Campus radio club as medium to discover new stories and many more lined up programs for the year.

Apart from just tuning, we want our peers to know more about what goes behind running a successful radio show by guest speaker sessions and by becoming RJ for the show.
